A time to Remember

R

Mrs. Moore gossips with her study hall.

Oh my!

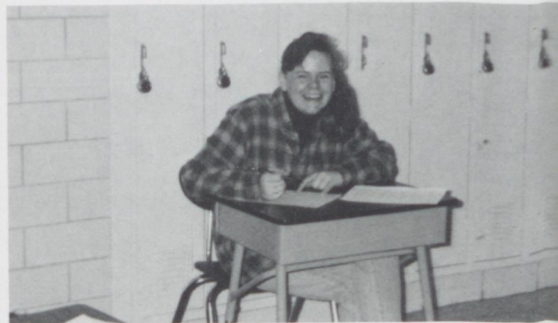

Is this a good enough smile?

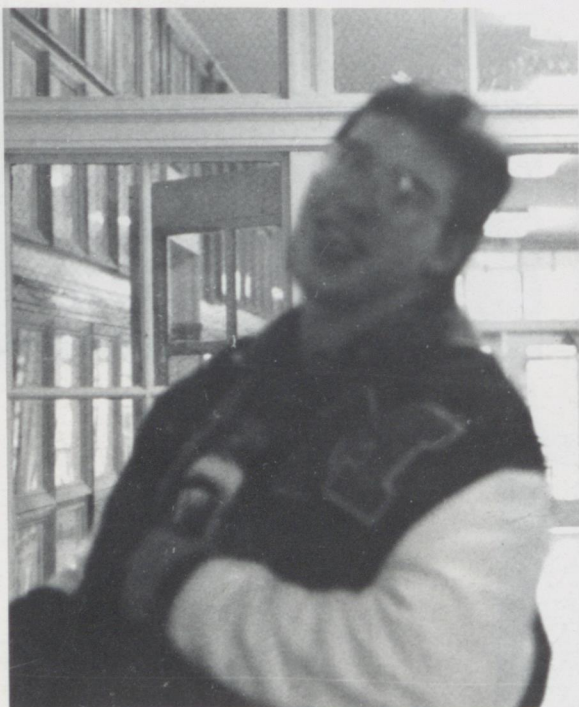

I'm not hiding anything, honest!

Say cheese!

Chris is showing his personality.

I'm a senior!

Don't look so enthused, Matt!

Really, I'm having a good time.

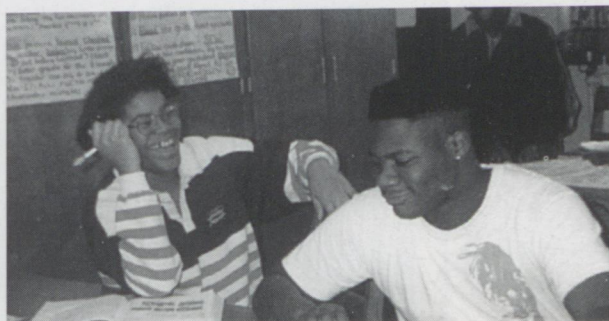

I don't get it.

Sensible Sophomores.

'Tis far better to wonder, than to know.

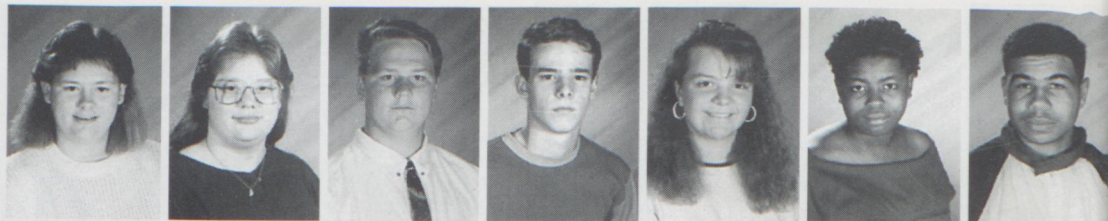

This is what Biology is like?

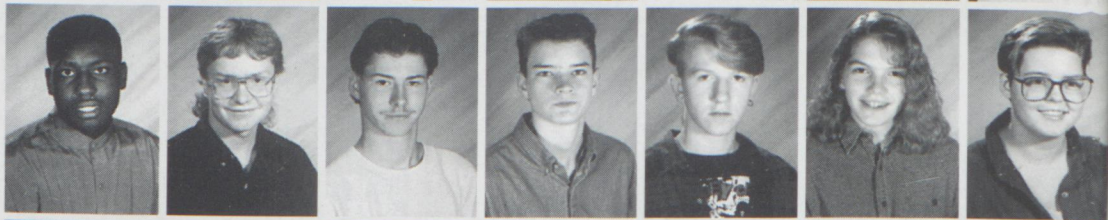

Sophs go for the shot.

Letter from the Editor

For I dipted into the future, far as human eye could see.
Saw the Vision of the world and all the wonder that would be.

— Tennyson

As the poet Tennyson points out, our future is boundless and limitless. The future really extends as far as one can imagine. Growing up involves not only finding one's self, but finding one's place in life. This is not an easy task, although it is clearly a challenging one. There is no pattern that is appropriate for everyone; therefore, it is necessary to look beyond the conventional and ordinary into a future which holds endless possibilities.

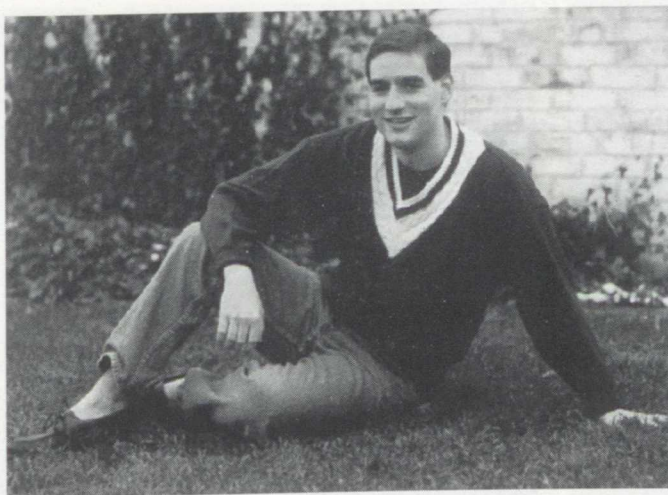

The future is not only infinite and filled with countless possibilities, but it also contains a Vision of a world yet to be. This Vision serves as a blueprint for developing and planning one's life. It is not always easy to find; but when it is discovered, excitement and motivation flow.

Even with a Vision of what might be, life might well remain dull and uninteresting without a sense of wonder or awe. As Tennyson so well described, that sense of wonder is really a driving force behind the creative shaping of our experiences. It is not always possible that we will be happy in our future, but we can nonetheless be inspired by the wonders and mysteries of life. We don't have all the answers — but, after all, what is a future for anyway?

Life offers us many memories, some pleasant and some not. Like the future Tennyson spoke of, memories are shaped by the very same wonder, inspiration, and awe.

As you finally reach your Vision and your place in life, you will look back at the past that you shaped and recall that 1993 was a time to remember.

Todd A. Golbus

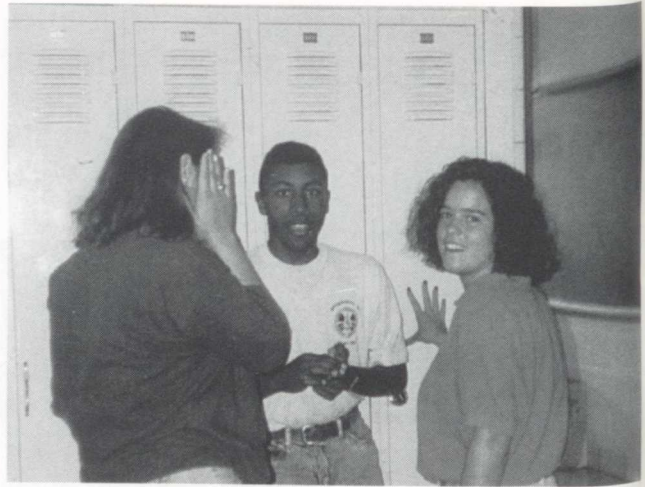

Class of 1993, wasn't 1993 a time to remember?
 Remember the time Mr. Garrick said Good-bye?
 Remember the Time Mr. White said Hello?
 Remember Mrs. Kay's great sense of Humor?
 Remember the way the bathrooms were always kept open?

Remember Mrs. Shawver's "IRGGS"
 Remember Latin Bingo?
 Remember the difficulty in going out to lunch?
 Remember Senior Skip Day? All six of them?
 Remember the great assemblies we had our Senior Year?

Remember that 1993 was Mr. Henry's last year?
 Remember the elegance of prom? ... the dresses?
 ... the lights? ... the fun?

Remember our great teams? ... the winning record of the swim team, the ... record of the softball team?

Remember the great Newspapers that MHS put out?
 Remember the Together Newspaper?

Looks like Chauncey is cornered.

Jayson ... going out to lunch?

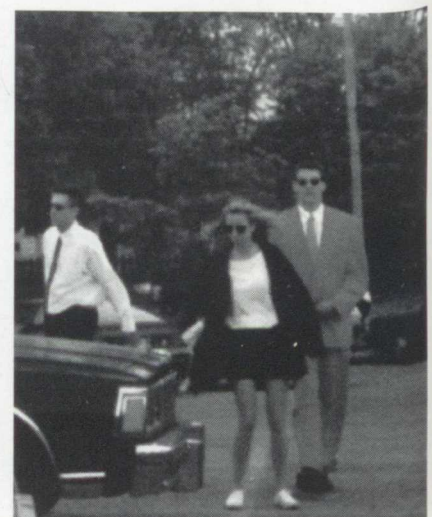

Another working bathroom

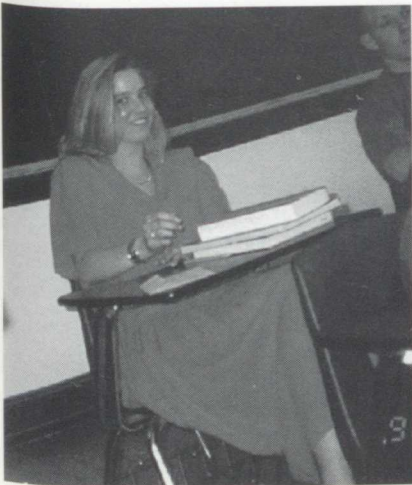

Just wake up Tosha? ... must be Advanced Comp!

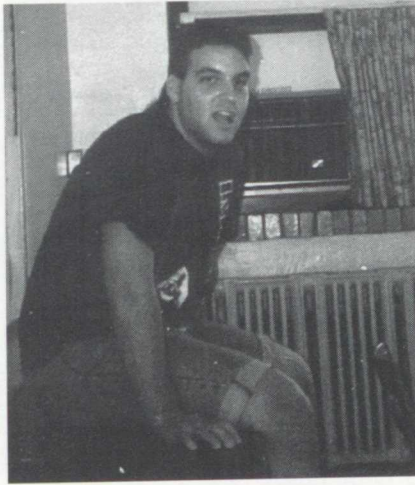

Mrs. J ... the last of the great librarians.

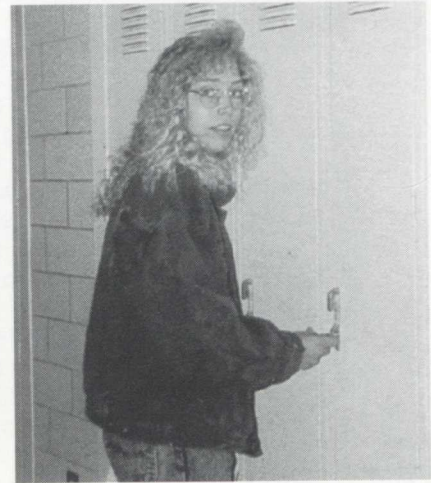

Mike and Joe all decked out.

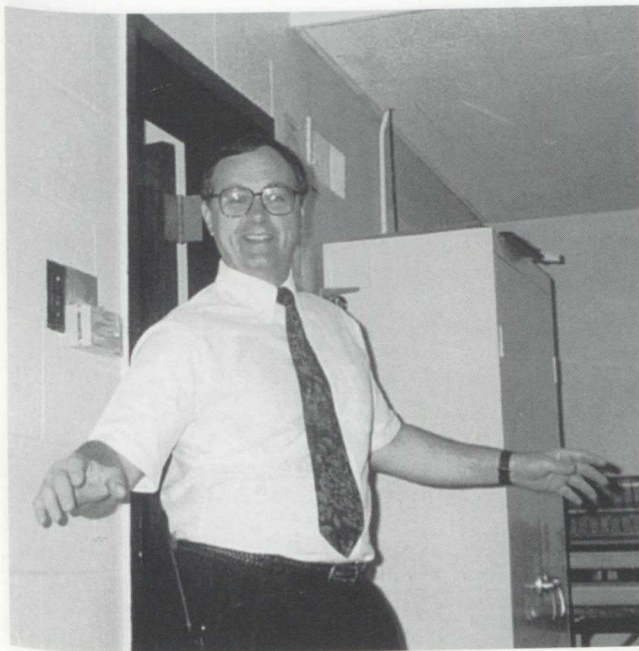

The woman in Red . . . Cori.

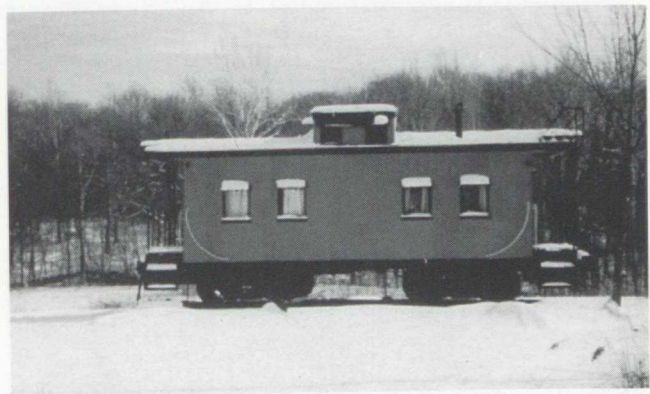

The 6'2" teddy bear — Mike.

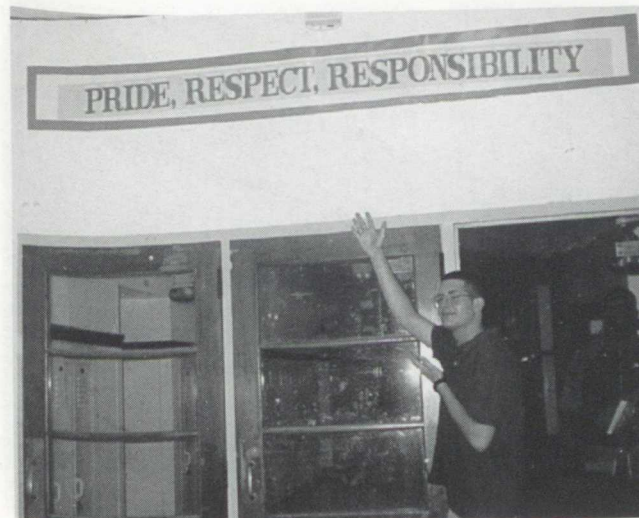

Karli proves that blond jokes are just a stereotype.

It's a wonderful day in Mr. Dean's neighborhood.

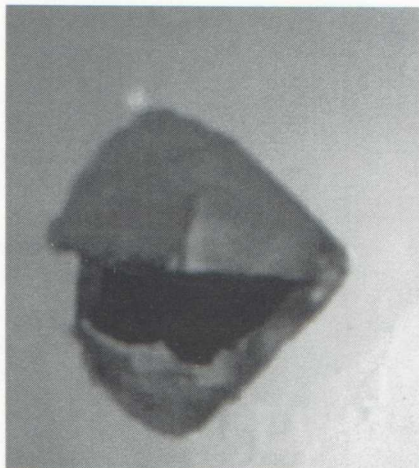

School away from School

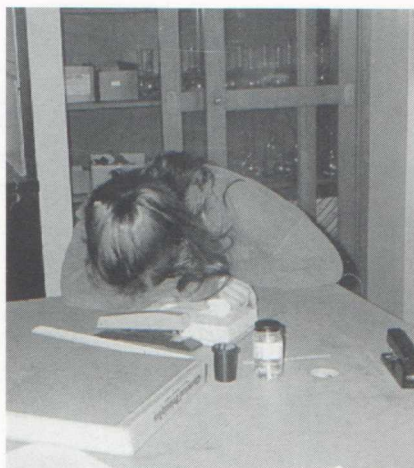

Scott . . . Pride, respect, and Responsibility . . . NOT!

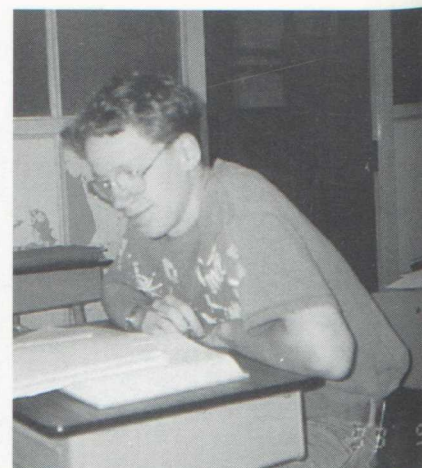

Remember Mr. White's Bullhorn?
 Remember "Code Reds" in the school lobby?
 Remember Mr. Gross's foot?
 Remember the accidental gun shot? all three?
 Remember seeing the Rescue squad at school . . .
 every day?
 Remember the get togethers at the caboose?
 Remember the snow days?
 Remember Graduation? The great speeches?
 Remember the orange stickers on the car windshields?
 Remember the Great Secretaries in every office?
 Remember the way that Mrs. Haynes Smiled?
 Remember the great class advisors, Mrs. Kay and Mr. Lull?
 Remember Hall sweeps?
 Remember the great way that Mr. Pratts coached?
 Remember when he said Good-bye to coaching?

Senior High, well kept up.

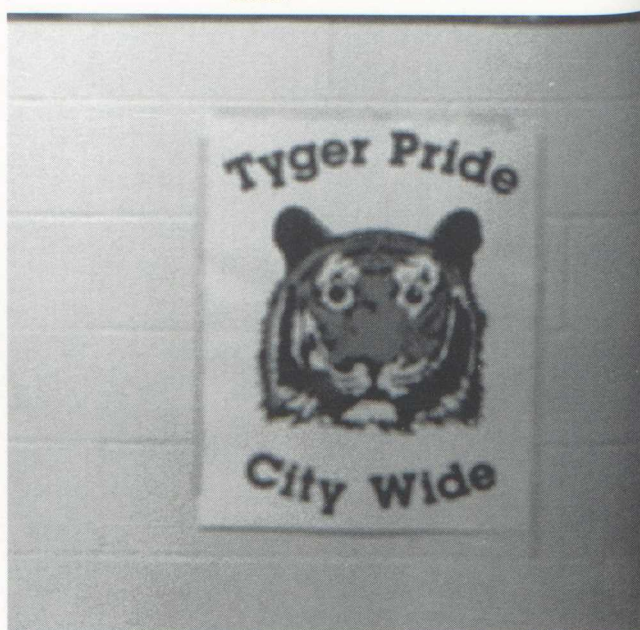

Interesting class, huh Laura?

People come from all over to study at Mansfield Senior.

Chauncey studying hard.

Senior High's great pride.

Remember the way "Big Brother" called when you missed School?
 Remember the Freshman building?
 Remember Percy Hall?
 Remember WWF with "Bakes"?
 Remember Chem 2's "and why not?"
 Remember the swimming pool, on top of the gym floor?
 Remember Mrs. Moore and Ms. Johnson?
 Remember Huey and Duey?
 Remember the "S.S.B.'s" and the "Ideal Freshman"?
 Remember the football's 7 and 1 ... no really 0 and 8?
 Remember the class of 1992 ... who wants to?
 Remember the guard rail at Wooster?
 Remember Harry Beer's "Capeche"?
 Remember the Time Mr. Dean was a health teacher?

The end of the Road?

The famous "lot."

Hey, Hey, Mrs. Johnson.

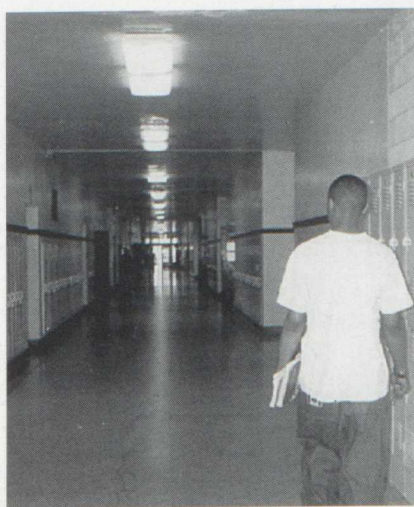

Remember Nantucket, the small island off the East Coast?
 Remember the time that Elvis made an appearance at a football game?
 Remember the T.V. in every room . . . the ones that didn't work and shocked you?
 Remember when Mr. Black was a principal?
 Remember the principals that had loud enough voices that you could hear them, without a bullhorn?
 Remember the bomb threat?
 Remember the moat that separated the school from the parking lot?
 Remember when there was a Malabar and a Senior High?
 Remember the sign in front of the school . . . and how it changed so frequently?
 Remember the "Tropical Disease" that Kitzler, Meyers, and Herrick got?
 Remember Mr. Kay's "Village Idiot"?
 Remember the "Big Fat Quarter"?
 Remember the times that the Sheriff got invited to our Parties?

More eventful classes. Physics, maybe?

On your way to lunch?

Down the halls.

Mrs. Kay gets "Grossed" out.

THE BUILDERS

All are architects of fate,
Working in these walls of time;
Some with massive deeds and great,
Some with ornaments of rhyme.

Nothing useless is, or low;
Each thing in its place is best;
And what seems but idle show
Strengthens and supports the rest.

For the structure that we rise,
Time is with materials filled;
Our to-days and yesterdays
Are the blocks with which we build.

Truly shape and fashion these;
Leave no yawning gaps between;
Think not, because no man sees,
Such things will remain unseen.

In the elder days of art,
Builders wrought with greatest care
Each minute and unseen part;
For the gods see everywhere.

Let us do our work as well,
Both the unseen and the seen;
Make the house, where gods may dwell,
Beautiful, entire, and clean.

Else our lives and incomplete,
Standing in these walls of time,
Broken stairways, where the feet
Stumble as they seek to climb.

Build to-day, then, strong and sure,
With a firm and ample base;
And ascending and secure
Shall to-morrow find its place.

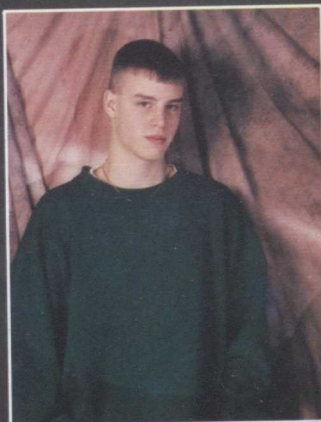

Thus alone can we attain
To those turrets, where the eye
Sees the world as one vast plane,
And one boundless reach of sky.

Mansfield Senior High, Class of 1993 ... "A TIME TO REMEMBER"

Being the first class to graduate from Mansfield Senior after the consolidation, we have grown to be as close as a family. We have had many wonderful memorable times, but also some tragic moments. Deep in our hearts we will always remember T. Stevie Jones, and Missy Warren. We are saddened and sorry that these two wonderful people have passed away.

As each of us goes on into our own future, we wish that you only have those good memories, but there will always be some times that you want to forget. For this, we wish that you are strong enough to get over the sorrow.

Mansfield Senior High, Class of 1993 ... "A TIME TO REMEMBER."

Can you fit anymore in, Joe?

Three, there it can't be that bad, Joye!

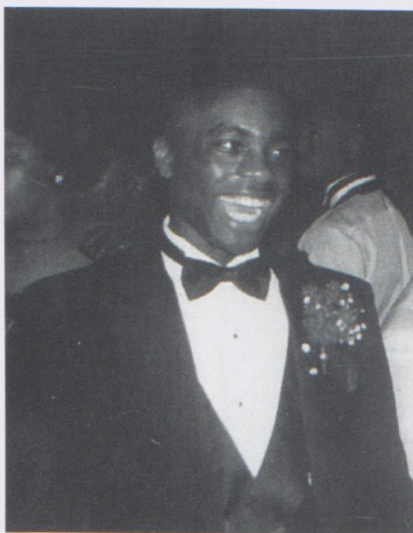

Sergio shows his Columbian smile.

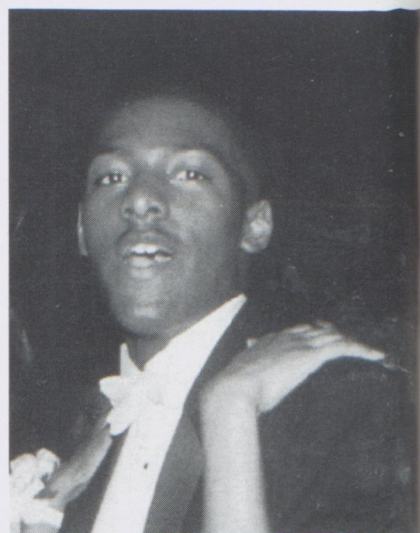

The guys G.Q. it up for the camera.

PROM — the “End of the Road”

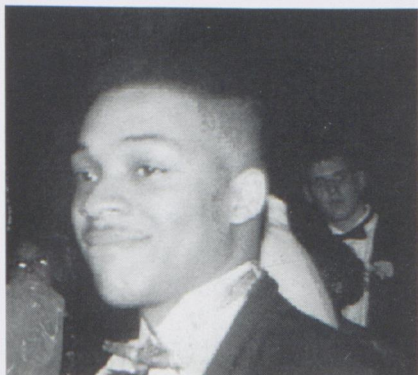

The prom of 1993 was held at the Mansfield Commerce Center on Friday, May 28. The “END OF THE ROAD” prom was followed by bowling at Park Lanes, and then Pickles, to finish off a great evening. Not often does Mansfield Senior get decked out, but when we do, we are unbeatable . . .

Obie gets an extra year of Prom.

Dino is surprised by the camera.

Richard is looking for his date.

Strike a pose, Vogue.

Scott and Steph get close.

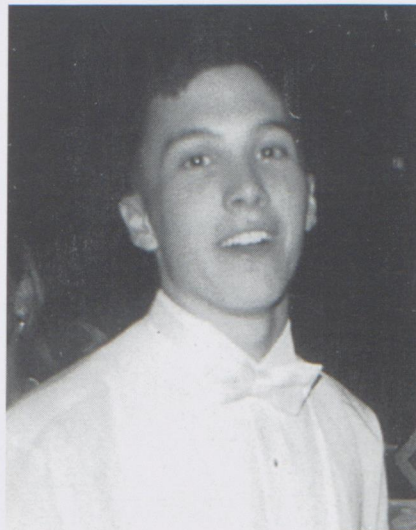

Desiree and Petey show off their moves.

Night on the town before back to Brazil

Tokie, dazzling as always.

Chad shows his smirk.

Marc looks happy as ever.

Jon and the Twin do the twist.

Karli and Vince enjoy a slow dance.

Don't look too excited.

Augie takes a glance.

Even the Army came to Senior High's parties

The floor gets crowded.

Grab a girl and dance, Tay.

Julie makes Mike sweat.

What a candid pose.

Tweedle DEE and Tweedle DUM.

Bill makes his grand entrance.

Open your eyes, Andrea.

Nice Hair.

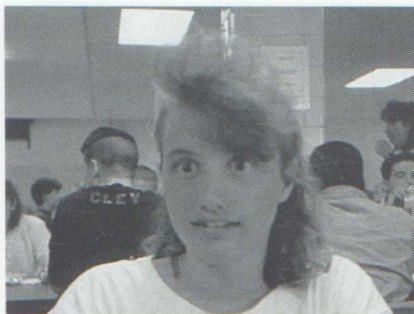

What a group of gangsters

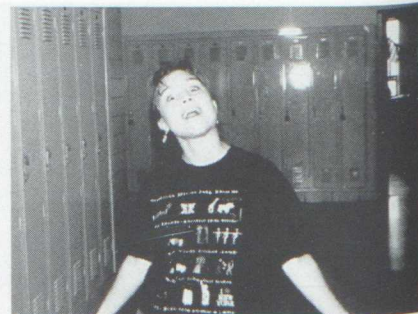

History was made.

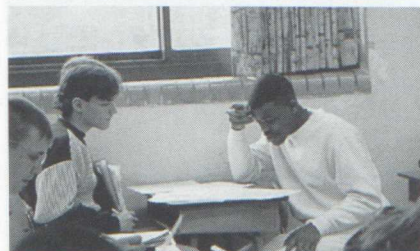

Luke, the "Mans."

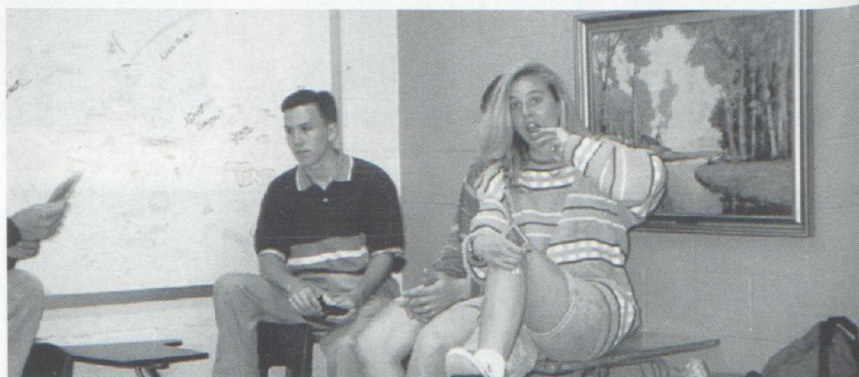

Surprise, Surprise.

Laura has Flipped.

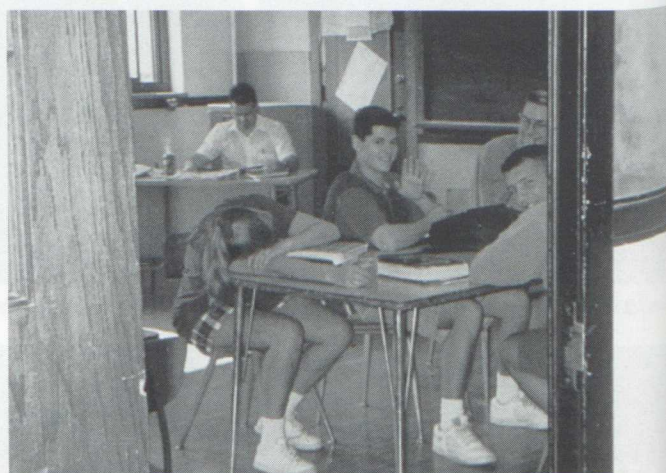

Oh my Gosh!

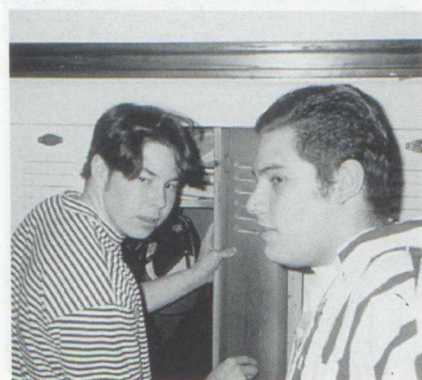

Popcorn caught in your teeth, Cori?

They are grinning; what did they do?

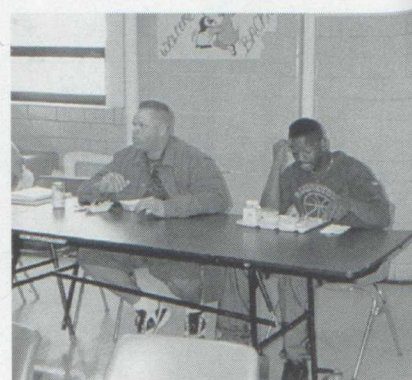

Tim, don't you have any homework?

North meets South.

A dazzling Duo!

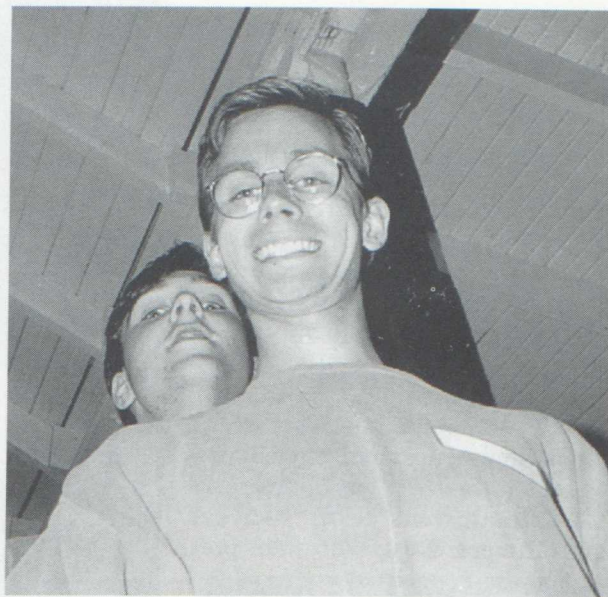

Is the food Moving Marvin?

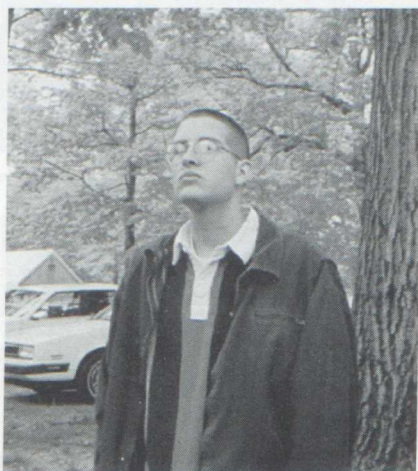

"Dimples" and "Duh."

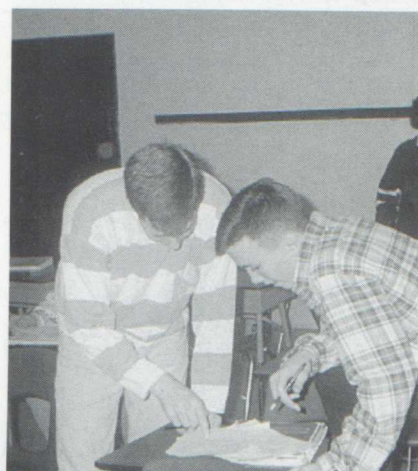

Everybody looks up to Dave.

Just wake up, Tokie.

Lew shows his intelligent side.

The blind leading the blind.

Digging for Gold.

Is this a dizzy contest?

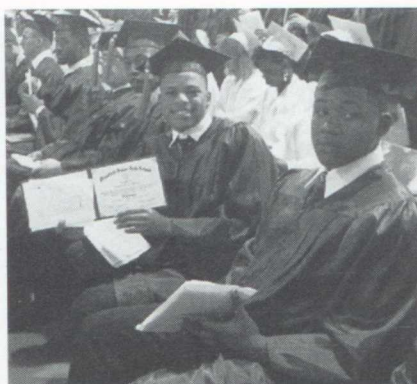

Graduation 1993

On June 5, 1993, the almost constant rain forced Commencement indoors. Seniors marched into Pete Henry Gym at 3:00 p.m. to receive their diplomas before a standing room only crowd.

Sheryl Cross, President of the Class of '93, welcomed her fellow classmates and guests. Principal James White, in his first Senior High Commencement, introduced Valedictorian Kohler Barker and Co-Salutatorians Scott McNeal and Tameca West, who then presented their speeches.

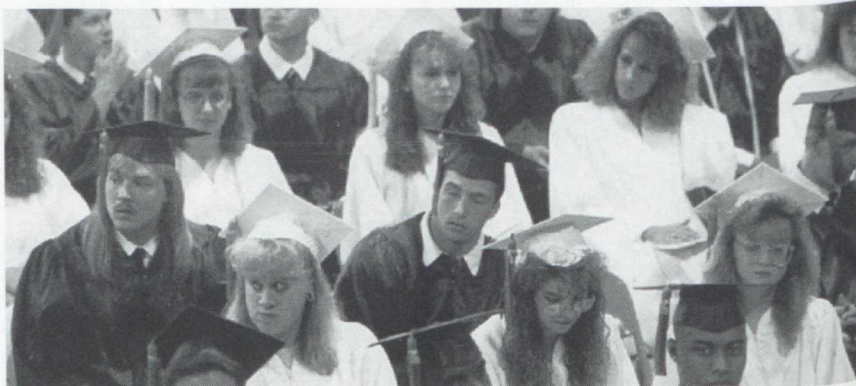

Diplomas were presented to class members, tassels were turned, and among the popping of many flashbulbs, the Class of 1993 marched out to become the one hundred forty-seventh class in the history of Mansfield.

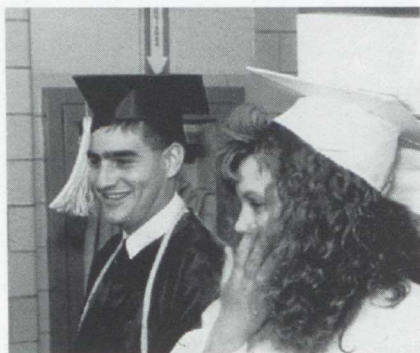

Show off that diploma.

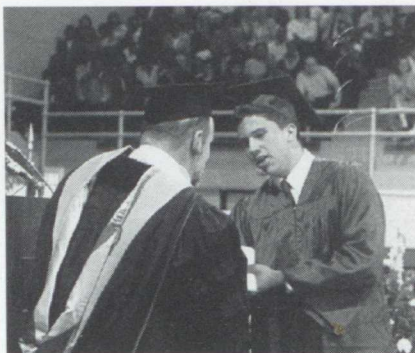

Jill is smiling from ear to ear, as Mr. White congratulates her.

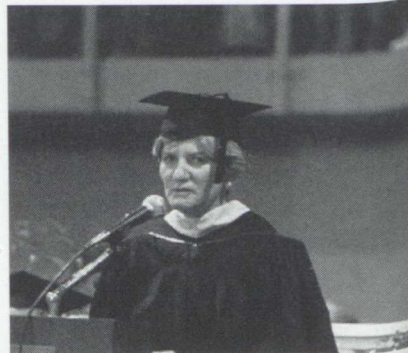

Senior High is always full of excitement.

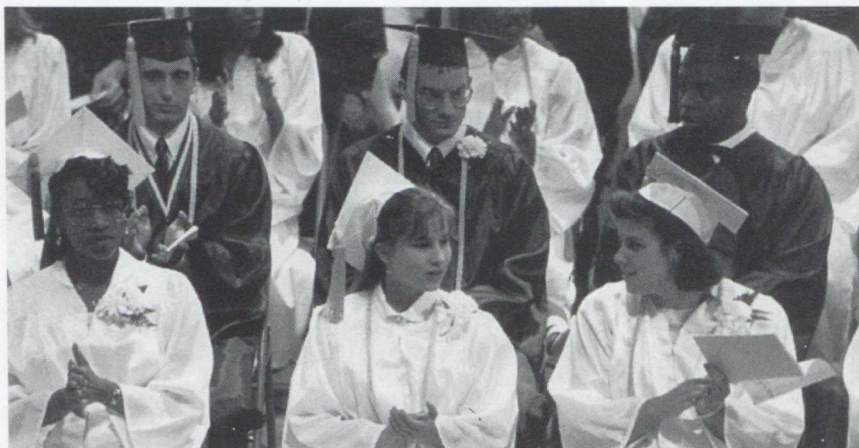

Jenny whispers to Todd.

Jason receives his freedom.

Board president Siegenthaler gives a speech.

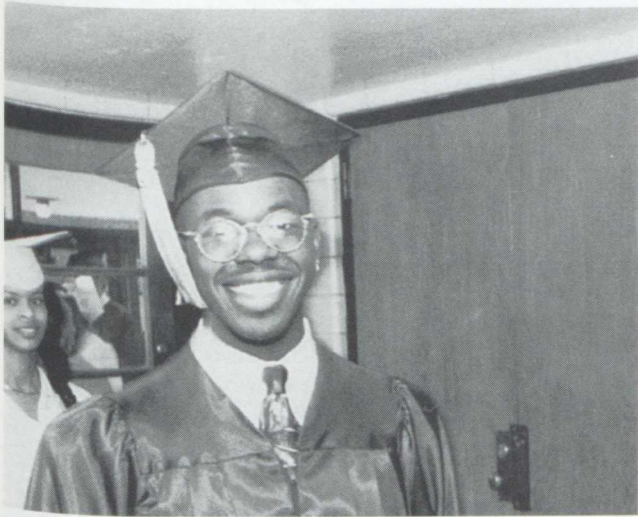

Our 1993 Class officers.

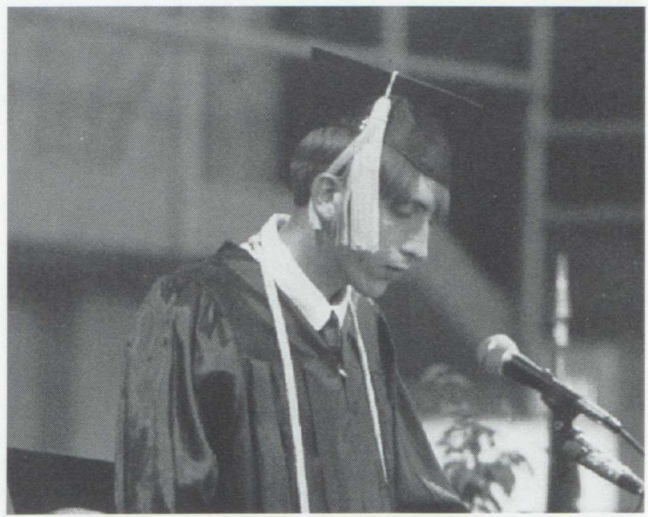

Flowers in one hand, diploma in the other.

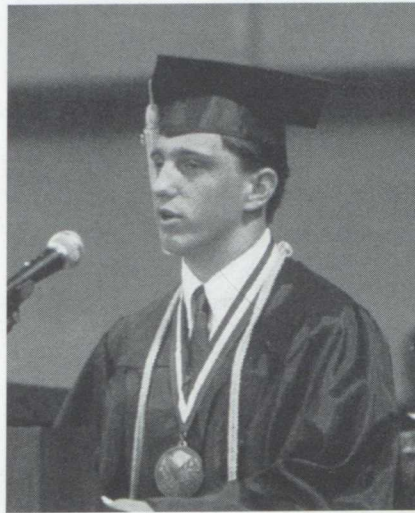

Cheer up, Robert.

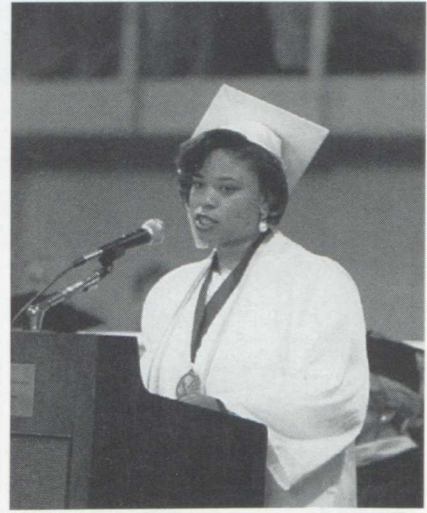

Speak up, Kohler.

A little early, Steph?

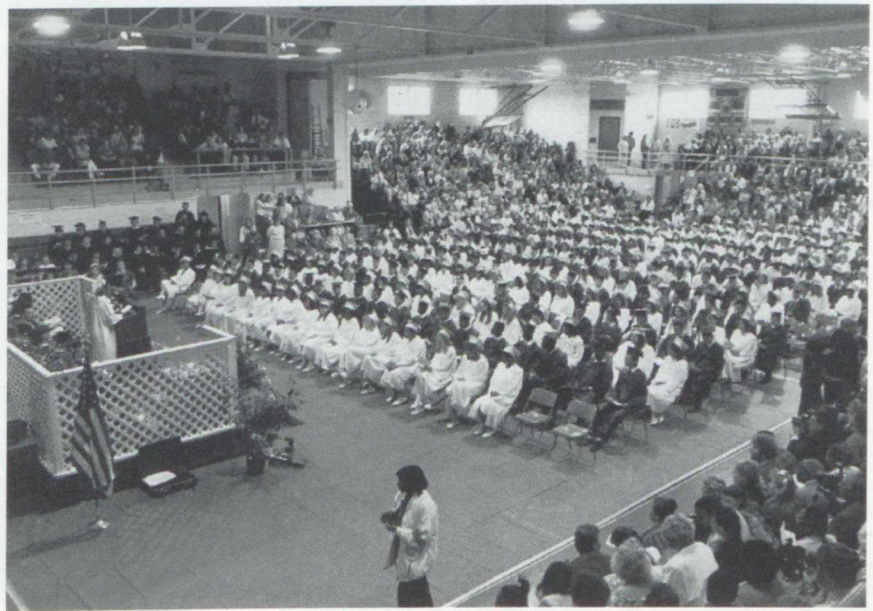

How is the stock market, Scott?

Tameca gives advice to her classmates.

Some of Senior High's faculty.

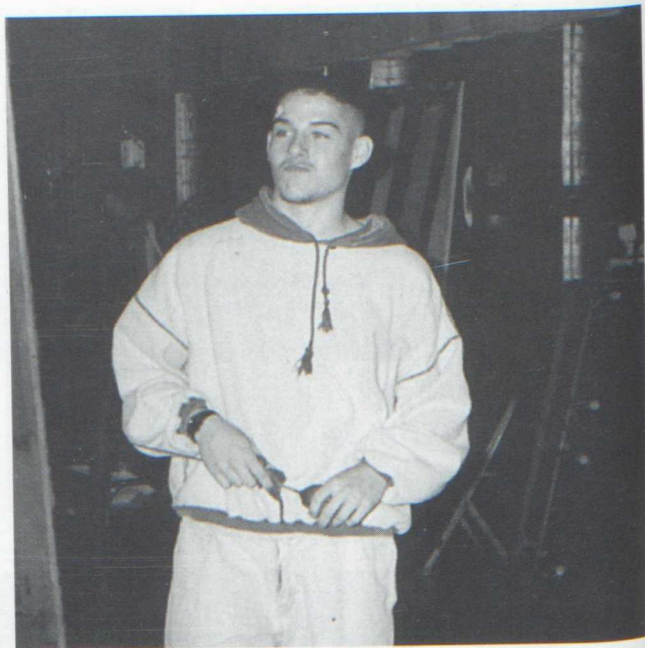

Mansfield Senior graduates 331.

Is Joe sleeping, or did he pass out?

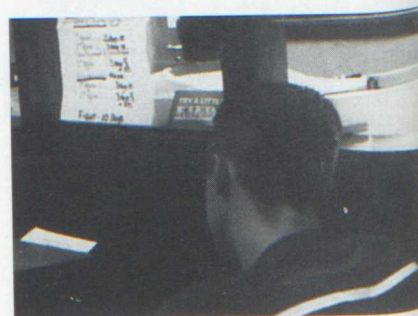

Is my band-aid on straight?

This is what the Seniors are looking forward to.

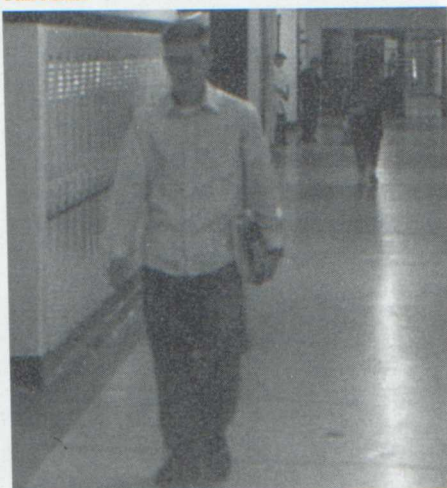

Which one has more air — my head or the balloons?

My . . . what a sexy head you have, Ben!

Hmmmm . . . wonder what this guy's thinking???

Don't you have a class to be in???

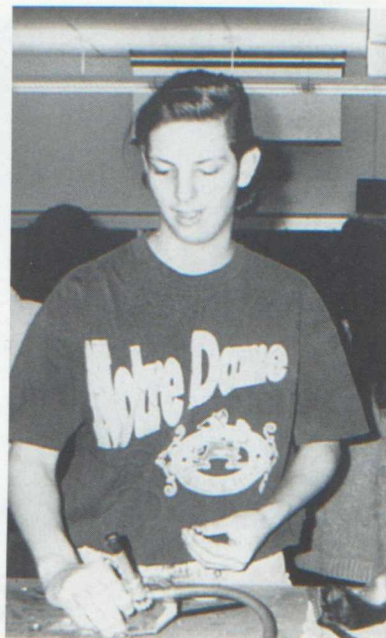

Sorry guys — you better find a different one!!!

Latoya looking intelligent!

"I know what to do!"

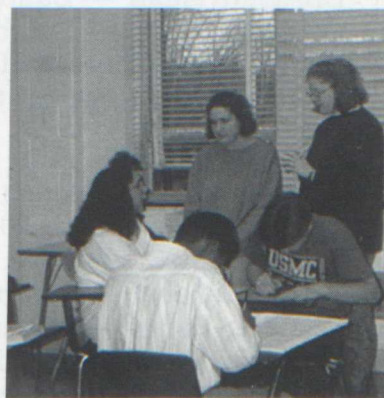

"Let's burn this place!"

One more time ...

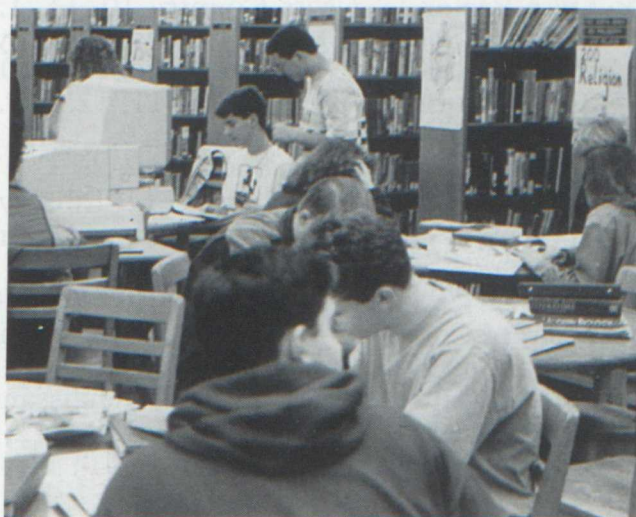

Hard at work

Having a group discussion in yearbook.

Shouldn't you be in class?

Tygers Enjoy 7-3 Season

The Mansfield Senior High School's football team finished the season with a rewarding record of 7-3. The victor against Marion Harding was one of the high points of the season. The losses to Lexington and Madison were dramatic losses for the Tyger football team.

The Varsity football squad was led by Captains Le Aunti Jefferson (off.), Duane Bradley (def.) and Shawn Vickers (spec. teams). While the Coach's Award was presented to Jeff Black and Mike Vavra. This year's Most Improved went to Jason Braddock and Doug Schartiger. Player of the Year went to Duane Bradley and Le Aunti Jefferson.

The 1992 Lady Tyger's Volleyball Season

With only two senior varsity players returning, the 1992 Lady Tygers had a season of rebuilding. Coach Laurie Ingram stated, "The highlight of the season was simply how these young girls improved with the guidance, example and leadership of co-captains, Rachel Holloway and Kelly McCorkle." Although the season ended at 7 and 14, Rachel Holloway was selected as First Team All Conference, as well as First Team All District, not to mention the team's Most Valuable Player. Kelly McCorkle came away with Second Team All Conference, and Katy Kozimor and Chandee White were given Honorable Mention. Chandee was also the Most Improved player for the team, while Jena Prats was given the Coach's Award for her determination and great attitude.

THE THREE AMIGOS.

SAYING GOODBYE TO THE BEST.

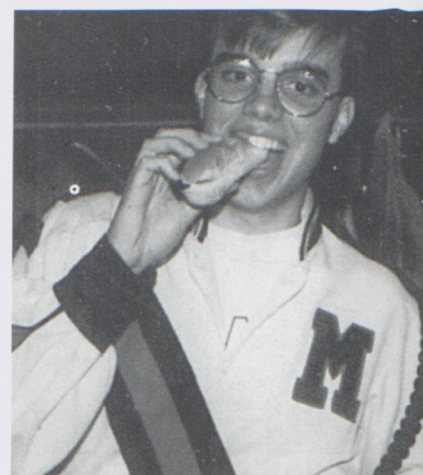

This year is the final year for band director Mr. Percy Hall. From the years 1959-1993, Mr. Hall has devoted much love, dedication, and time into the music program of Mansfield Senior High. He is known and respected throughout the state, and is said to be one of the best band directors ever by one of his colleagues. This year, as for many years, he has directed the band to superior ratings at district, regional, and state competitions. He has also helped many students receive superior ratings at solo and ensemble contest. Mr. Hall is dearly appreciated by all the staff and students at senior high and will be sincerely missed. Thanks for all you have done, and we will miss you!

Boys Face Tough Schedule

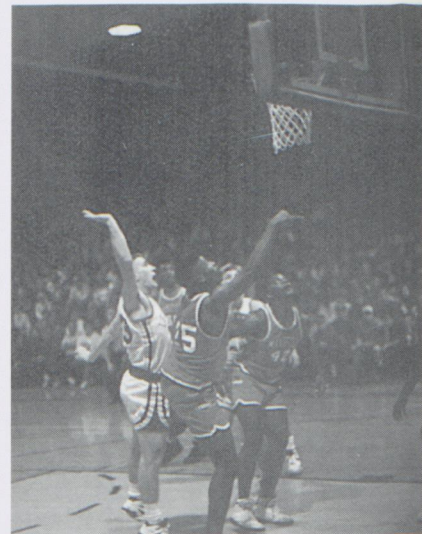

This years Basketball schedule was one of the toughest in school history. The Tygers played 7 of the 20 teams in the state and the number 6 team in New Jersey.

Even with such a tough schedule, the Basketball team had a winning season (11-9). The Tygers were also Ohio Heartland Conference Co-Champs. It was a good season for the Tygers.

The Tygers were lead by Senior M.V.P. Ben Kitzler and Sean Tucker, who lead the team in scoring and rebounding.

Spirit Prevails

The cheerleading season had an exciting start as Coaches Foster and Daugherty traveled with the Tyger cheerleaders to Kenyon, Ohio, for a week of camp. The new atmosphere provided for success as the Varsity squad received eight superior ribbons, the JV seven superior and two excellent, and the Freshmen three superior and two excellent. The Varsity and Freshmen were also commended for their spirit with the honor of a Cheer Ohio Spirit Key, and the JV with a first place in the dance category.

Competition was expanded this year as the Tyger Varsity Cheerleaders participated in four and the JV ventured to three. Although the Varsity squad placed third in the Richland County competition, the long hours spent by both squads preparing was well worth the experience.

At the final banquet, the Spirit Award was given to Aimee Bechstein, and the Coach's Award to Missy Foti. Overall, all three squads had a productive and exciting year and showed outstanding enthusiasm throughout the football and basketball seasons.

Boys Tennis

The boys tennis team had a very unsuccessful season this year with a 1-10 record. The only win came against St. Peters at Maple Lake Park. There were many individual players with wins, but not enough to boost the Tygers to a win.

The captain was John Cha, playing first singles. Playing second singles was Tim Pet-ska, and Eric Barbone played third singles. Playing first doubles were Burt Preston and Ryan Uhde. Second doubles were Jeremy Gates and Bill Gutshall. Finally, playing first singles JV was Steve Geary. Jerry Lorentz was this Tyger team coach.

Boys' Baseball

Although the 1993 varsity baseball season was disappointing in the scoreboard, there were a few individual standouts. Bill Fawcett and Dan Zelinski anchored the team in the number 3 and 4 spots respectively. Dan and Bill also obtained 4 of the 5 wins for the Tygers this year. Both Dan and Bill plan to continue playing baseball in college.

Next year the team will be in good shape offensively with the return of leadoff man Tom Hagar, Aaron Dials, and Brian Deehr, who came in strong the latter part of the year. Pitching will see a return of Shawn Robles, the number two man in the rotation, and Adam Rockhold who received the team's other win.

Jenny struts her stuff to first.

Lady Tygers' Softball

Although they only ended up with a record of 5-14, the Tyger Softball Team ended up as a team instead of individual players. Their first year coach, Lisa Manco, will undoubtedly look for a better season next year.

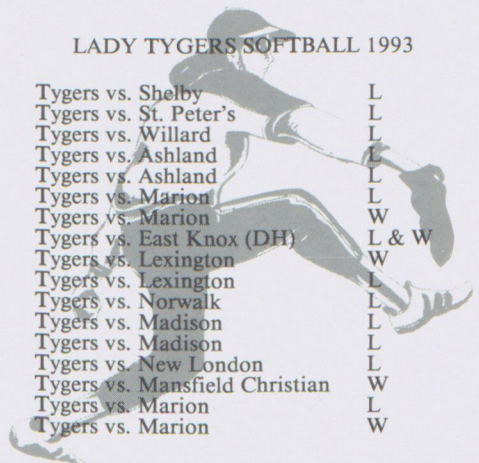

Winning honors this year went to following Tyger Athletes: Stephanie Robles and Jenny Grassel for their efforts in obtaining Most Valuable and Most Improved, while fellow teammates obtained two awards for their jobs well done on the fields. Jenny Snavley received the Captain's Award and was nominated into the OHC team. LaShay Fox received the Coach's Award and was nominated into the OHC Team. Megan Beilstein and Jenny Mull were awarded Honorable Mention in the OHC.

Girls Have Good Season

The 1993 girls track team had a successful season. The most valued track member was Jane Parker and the most improved was Deon Turner. The captains' award was given to Kelly McCorkle and Creda Paige. Jenny Link received the Coach's award.

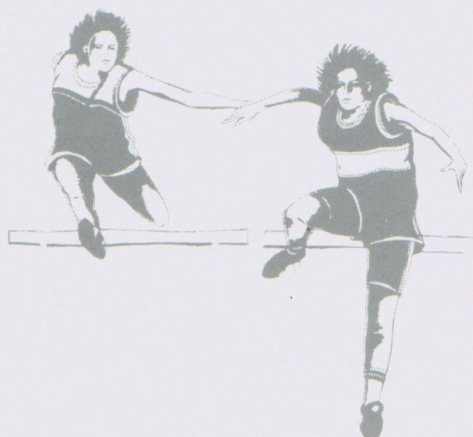

What faithful fans!

Just a little harder and you'll have her, Camilla.

Deon takes it all.

Two terrific trackers — Deon and Jane.

EMPIRE-DETROIT STEEL

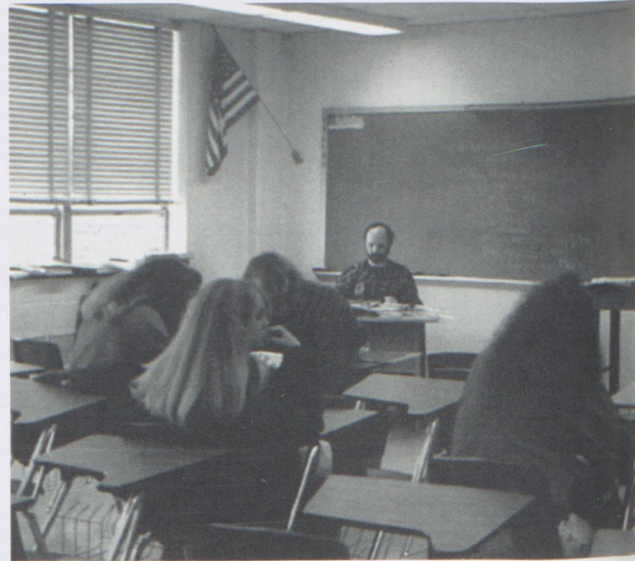

The following pages contain advertisements of many area businesses and corporations. The Manhigan staff encourages you to give your patronage to these companies. Without these very generous sponsors, this book would not be possible. We would also like to send a special thank you to Empire-Detroit Steel, Emcorp, and Burger King for being our corporate sponsors. We apologize to Mansfield Distributing, Bissman Distributing, Bailey Distributing, and the Red Fox. Unfortunately this year they were banned from supporting our book.

Thank you very much

Eating again — an editor's job is never done!

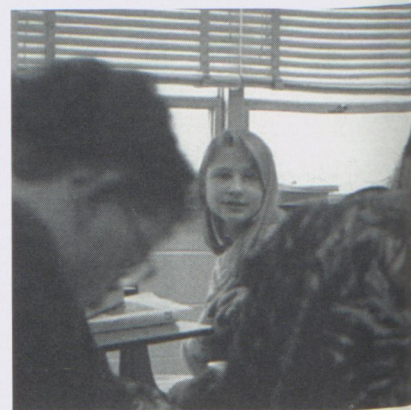

Chutzpah — that's what this is.

Gonna miss these halls.

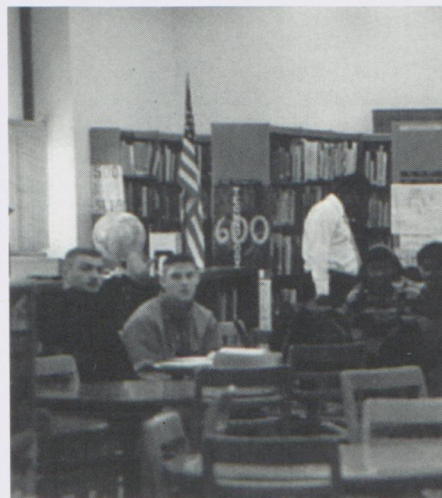

You're gonna eat that?

Of course you aren't paying attention!

Making a list — checking it twice.

Fun in the library.

Mr. Helbert at 40.

To Todd,
You are a great son.

Love, Mom and Dad

To Tim,
Good luck in all you do.
We're very proud of you!!!

Jenni

Megan,
You've been the sunshine of our lives from the time you were born, and you always will be.

We love you, Mom and Dad

To Zachary,
You are the best son I ever could have had. I wish you much success in life.

Love, Mom

To Amanda,
Reach high, for stars lie
hidden in your soul.
Dream deep, for every dream precedes the goal.

Love, Dad, Mom

To Anissa,
You are my last to graduate, and I am as proud of you as I was my first.
Good luck in all you do.

Love, Mom, Tom and Family

To Andrea,
We're very proud of
you. Good luck in the future. We'll always be there for you.

EMCORP

Electric Motor and Control Corporation salutes the students and graduates of Mansfield Senior High School. Welcome to a world that will confront and challenge men and women in ways that have never before been imagined. As the human animal prepares to attack the 21st century we must remember that the drive to explore new frontiers and discover unseen horizons comes only from within ourselves. We must look upon this drive as a rare and powerful tool that will help us to uncover new and hidden treasures in our never ending quest for knowledge. Never let the eternal flame of the human spirit flicker and dwindle from your psyche, carry it as the brilliant and enlightening torch that it is.

"INVICTUS"

BY WILLIAM ERNEST HENLEY

Out of the night that covers me,
Black as the pit from pole to pole,
I thank whatever gods may be for my unconquerable soul.

In the fell clutch of circumstance
I have not winced nor cried aloud.
Under the bludgeonings of chance my head is bloody but unbowed.

Beyond this place of wrath and tears looms but the horror of the shade, and yet the menace of the years finds, and shall find me, unafraid.

It matters not how straight the gate,
how charged with punishments the scroll.
I am the Master of my fate:
I am the Captain of my soul.

The Children's Services Residential Staff

The yearbook staff would also like to thank the secretaries for all of their help. They are the ones who did much of the work!

This book is dedicated to Dave Gross, our faithful advisor. Without his help and knowledge this book would not be possible. Think, only two years left.

This book is also dedicated to the memory of Linda Warren and Talbert Stevie Jones.
